Data validation checks

This spreadsheet performs a basic validation check of the data submitted in Sections A-E to ensure the data are consistent (e.g. components sum to totals).

If ALL the check cells below are coloured green and display the word "PASS" then there are no inconsistencies in the data. Please return to Page 1, ensure name and date have been entered, and email the spreadsheet to Coroners>Returns@justice.gsi.gov.uk

If ANY cells are coloured white and display the word "FAIL" in red, then there is inconsistency in the data. Firstly, look at COMMON ERRORS (below) to see whether the failure is one of those. Then— Please revisit the relevant part of the spreadsheet and check the data entered, entering corrections as necessary. Please then— return to this sheet to ensure all cells are now green and display the word "PASS", indicating that there are no inconsistencies in the data.

If any cells display a caution (dark blue cell with CAUTION in yellow) it is not necessarily wrong but the figure needs to be checked (e.g. Treasure Trove inquests which are very rare now). It is perfectly acceptable to submit a return with CAUTION flags displayed.

Checks in blue are often caused by common errors. Click on these to go to the common errors page for instructions on how to remedy the error
