

CEREDIGION COUNTY COUNCIL

REGISTER OF MEMBERS' INTERESTS

Updated: 8 October 2016

Guidance Note for Members

1. Completing the Register

- Under The Local Government Act 2000 (as amended), the Monitoring Officer is required to establish and maintain a Register of Members' Interests.
- The Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013 extended the reference to Monitoring Officer to include the Proper Officer of a Town/Community Council.
- Paragraph 15 of the Code of Conduct adopted by Ceredigion County Council on 21 April 2016, (effective from 20 May 2016), requires Members and co-opted members of Ceredigion County Council, and Town/Community Councils in Ceredigion to register in the Register of Members' Interests any interests which fall within a category mentioned in paragraph 10(2)(a) of the Code of Conduct. This can be done by providing written notification to the County Council's Monitoring Officer; or, in the case of a Town/ Community Council with that authority's Proper Officer.
- Each Member has been given an individual Register like this one to complete and return. The Monitoring Officer keeps these together to form the statutory Register of Members' Interests. Each Register can be updated as necessary or separate forms can be completed by Members and inserted into the Register.
- The categories of interests mentioned in paragraph 10(2)(a) of the Code are set out on pages 5 - 7.
Members are required to register any interests which fall within these categories by inserting details in the space provided (pages 9-14). Members who have no such interests should write 'none' in the space provided.

2. Upon Election

- This Register must be completed and returned to the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of your Authority's Code of Conduct being adopted or the mandatory provisions of this model code being applied to your authority; or, your election or appointment to office, whichever is the latest.

3. During your term of office

- Notifying the Monitoring Officer of any new interests

You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new personal interest falling within a category mentioned in paragraph 10(2)(a) register that new interest in your authority's Register of Members' Interests by providing written notification to the County Council's Monitoring Officer.

- Notifying the Monitoring Officer or Proper Officer of any changes

You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new personal interest or a change to any personal interest which has already been registered, register that new personal interest or change by providing written notification to your authority's Monitoring Officer, or in the case of a community council to your authority's Proper Officer.

- Notifying the Monitoring Officer of a personal interest in accordance with Paragraph 11 for the first time

You must, when disclosing a personal interest in accordance with paragraph 11 for the first time, register that personal interest in your authority's register of Members' Interests by providing written notification to your authority's Monitoring Officer, or in the case of a Town/ Community council to your authority's Proper Officer.

- Notifying the Monitoring Officer of any interests disclosed during meetings

When you disclose an interest orally at a meeting of the Authority, you must, before or immediately after the meeting, give written notification to the Monitoring Officer by completing the appropriate form, copies of which will be available at meetings.

You must disclose an interest each time it arises but you only need to give written notification to the Monitoring Officer (or Proper Officer) once.

Members should be aware that the Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013 requires the County Council to publish the Register of Members' interests.
